

Biography of Paul Adams

Paul is currently the Chief Operating Officer of Liberty Tree Enterprises, a business consulting firm located in Henderson, Nevada. After graduating from West Point in 1976, Paul attended the Military Intelligence Officers Basic Course and then served in the 25th Infantry Division as S-2 of the 1st Battalion, 14th Infantry, the Interrogation Prisoner of War Section Chief and G-2 Training Officer. He was selected for the Army's Funded Legal Education Program and received his law degree from Hastings College of the Law in San Francisco in 1982. He served as a Trial Counsel at Fort Jackson, South Carolina, as Chief of Military Justice, 19th Support Command, Taegu Korea and as Defense Counsel in Taegu, Korea. Paul was medically discharged from the Army in 1986.

Upon leaving the Army, Paul practiced law in San Francisco, becoming a partner in two firms, Tobin & Tobin and Haines & Lea. His practice focused on advising businesses and litigation in real estate, banking, construction defect and technology matters. In 1996, Paul left the practice of law and co-founded Millennium Automation, an automation company in Silicon Valley. While serving as president of Millennium, the company introduced 10 new products and developed significant customer relationships with Hewlett-Packard, HMT, Lifescan, Seagate, Read-Rite and a variety of companies in the disk drive, medical and food industries. Paul negotiated the sale of Millennium to an Italian company and stayed for an 11 month post sale transition period. Paul was a director at FM Industries (FMI), a supplier of complex electro-mechanical assemblies to the semiconductor industry. At FMI, Paul was responsible for resolving complex international supply chain issues, repairing customer relations issues and establishing a prototype manufacturing facility.

Liberty Tree Enterprises was founded in 2002, when Paul and his wife, Melinda, moved to Henderson, Nevada. Paul and Melinda have been married for 30 years and have two daughters who live in Henderson.

Paul is currently the Chairman of the Nevada Republican Party. Previously, he served as the Chairman of Nevada Veterans for Bush, Clark County Republican Party Grassroots Coordinator.
